

Guest Speaker: Commissioner Jeffrey Pisarcik

Jeff was born in 1961 to Dennis and the late Donna Pisarcik. He was raised in Brockway and graduated from Brockway Area High School in 1979.

Jeff is married to Jaynie and resides in Sykesville. They have three children, Jessica Poe and husband Billy, Megan Bundy and husband Luke, and Kyle still at home. They enjoy their three grandchildren, Katie, Avery, and Carson.

After school, Jeff worked at Brockway Pressed Metals for 2 years and then was hired by Penn Traffic as a Meat Cutter for 21 years. Jeff was elected as Jefferson County Commissioner in 2004 and re-elected to a second term in 2008.

Jeff serves as Board Chairman at Christ the King Manor, Treasurer of Sykesville Lion's Club, Son of the American Legion Post #392, Knights of Columbus 4th Degree #956, Past President of Sykesville Eagles, and Assumption Blessed Mary Church Council. Jeff also has coached baseball and softball for Sykesville Little League over the past 15 years.

Jeff enjoys spending time with his family and in his spare time hunting, golfing, gardening and watching NASCAR Racing.

