

2009 Brockway 4th of July Queen Jordan Hrinia

The Brockway 4th of July Committee is proud to announce Jordan Hrinia as the 2009 Brockway Old Fashioned 4th of July Queen. As the new queen, she will be crowned on Friday night, July 3rd, at 6:30 PM at The American Legion Theater in the Park Stage and will reign over the Brockway Old Fashioned 4th of July Festivities. She will be crowned by the 2008 Queen, Brittney Castiglione.

Jordan is the 18 year old daughter of William and Melissa Hrinia of Brockway. She is a 2009 Brockway Area High School Graduate. While in school, she was busy serving the Anti-Bullying Committee and Art Club. She was both the Wrestling and Volleyball Manager. She was an Honor Roll Student and has been very involved in the Girl Scouts.

Our community holds the honor of being the 4th of July Queen as a very prestigious honor. Jordan, you will represent our community in the 43rd Brockway Old Fashioned 4th of July Festivities and we are very proud of you.

Congratulations and Thank you Jordan!
