Tropical Soul will send you on a musical journey down South where the palm trees sway and warm ocean breezes blow. The musical genre of this five-piece band ranges from island-flavored originals to acoustic beach, pop and Jimmy Buffett covers.

Just a few of their past venues include opening for “Jimmy Buffett and The Coral Reefer Band,” and performing at “Margaritaville” in New Orleans, Louisiana; Key West and Orlando, Florida. Tropical Soul frequently collaborates with R. Scott Bryan, formerly of the Sheryl Crow Band and regularly entertains for many ParrotHead Clubs throughout the country as well as the National ParrotHead Convention in Key West, Florida.

So go ahead... ..sing, dance, laugh and have some island fun!
