

Brockway Area Old Fashioned Fourth of July

Box 252 • Brockway, PA 15824

The Brockway Area Old Fashioned Fourth of July Committee is in the midst of planning the 52nd Annual Celebration for 2018. Individuals committees are working hard behind the scenes to secure new and exciting events, plan annual favorites and improve the celebration.

Last year we moved from the traditional booklet to a user friendly Event Brochure, which was positively received. The full color Brochure is much easier to handle and contains the full schedule as well as other important information.

One ongoing improvement in letting the community know exactly what we have planned is through our website. Everyone can see the schedule, events, sponsors, patrons, contributors and other information easily accessed on their hand held devices. The Committee is very proud of this facet to our celebration and hope you will take a moment to visit us at www.brockwayfourth.com. The website is updated regularly.

With all of this planning by the Committee, it is important to request your monetary assistance to ensure these events take place for the enjoyment of the entire area. Your contribution to this time honored event will be recognized in the following areas:
